- The image shows a template for a 5-page spread. It consists of five vertical panels of equal width, separated by four vertical lines. The outermost panels are bounded by a light blue line, and the inner panels are bounded by a magenta line. A central vertical line represents the fold line. A legend in the center explains the lines: a light blue line for the Safe Area, a magenta line for the Trim Line / Fold Line, and a black line for the Bleed Area. A red-bordered box contains an important note, and the final dimensions are listed below it.
